Be it Remembered, that William Hill Esquire Attorney for the United States on the 22nd day of September last past exhibited his Libel in behalf of the United States against two Rum-Punchions and the Rum contained therein, seized at the Port of Edenton for having been found imported into the Port aforesaid and not being duly entered and the Duties thereon not having been paid or secured to be paid, and the Court having appointed this day for the Trial of the same, and that due Notice be made thereof, which Notice having been ^{made} and the necessary Proclamations and no Person appearing to make due prosecution of Claim to the Articles Seized, the Court did consider the said Articles Seized as aforesaid to be Forfeited and Condemned and did Adjudge, Order, and Decree the said Two Rum Punchions, and the Rum contained therein to be sold by the Marshal of the District aforesaid at Public Auction in the Town of Edenton on the nineteenth day of November next, and after deducting all Petition for Freight.

On considering the Complainant's Petition and the Answer of the Defendant, His Order and Decree that the Defendant pay to the Complainant thirty two Dollars for the Freight of the Wine as prayed in the Petition, that the Bill of Lading be canceled or delivered up to the Captain, and that he moreover pay all the Costs accruing.

I'm acting under the power to sell the VanBrocklin Lot I trust you will meet with no difficulty whatever in it is a course that the parties claimant, agreed on and the only thing you will have to do will be ~~to get some one to purchase~~ put up the lot and let ~~it be~~ to follow the advertisements. When the bids are taken you will be good enough to forward them to me that I may report them the next Rule day of the Court for a final Order

The lot as advertised

I expect that ~~the plaintiff~~ H. Raymond ~~and one of~~ ~~the Executors of the Estate of John B. Cotton~~ and Henry J. Clark will both be at the sale as parties interested in the amount of money that the Van Brocklin Lot may sell for. I don't know what they want to become purchasers of ~~the lot~~ but they may both be there if they don't want it themselves ~~they~~ ^{may} want it to sell for a big price. I mention this that ~~any~~ you may be able to appreciate any claim they may prefer. The expense of the sale that you may incur shall be paid immediately on the amount being stated by you the notes of the purchase you will please forward that they may be reported on the first Rule day of the Court for final action.
